BISHOP LOUIS J. REICHER OF AUSTIN, TEXAS

His name is lettered not only on the school facade but in the grateful hearts of every Reicher student.

RIGHT REVEREND MONSIGNOR J. J. KEARNS

His pastoral encouragement instills in us a true spirit of devotion to our Lord and our Redeemer.

SISTER WALTER MARIE, C.S.J.

Our new principal and counselor, who is ever ready to promote our spiritual, educational, and physical well-being.

Father Leddy, in his role of counselor, counseling a junior, Larry Kousal.

PARENT NIGHT

Mothers and Dads carefully follow registration instructions.

At the parent-assembly, Father Mark Deering, with the very capable assistance of the "faculty-family," introduces the book, CODE FOR PARENTS OF TEEN-AGERS.

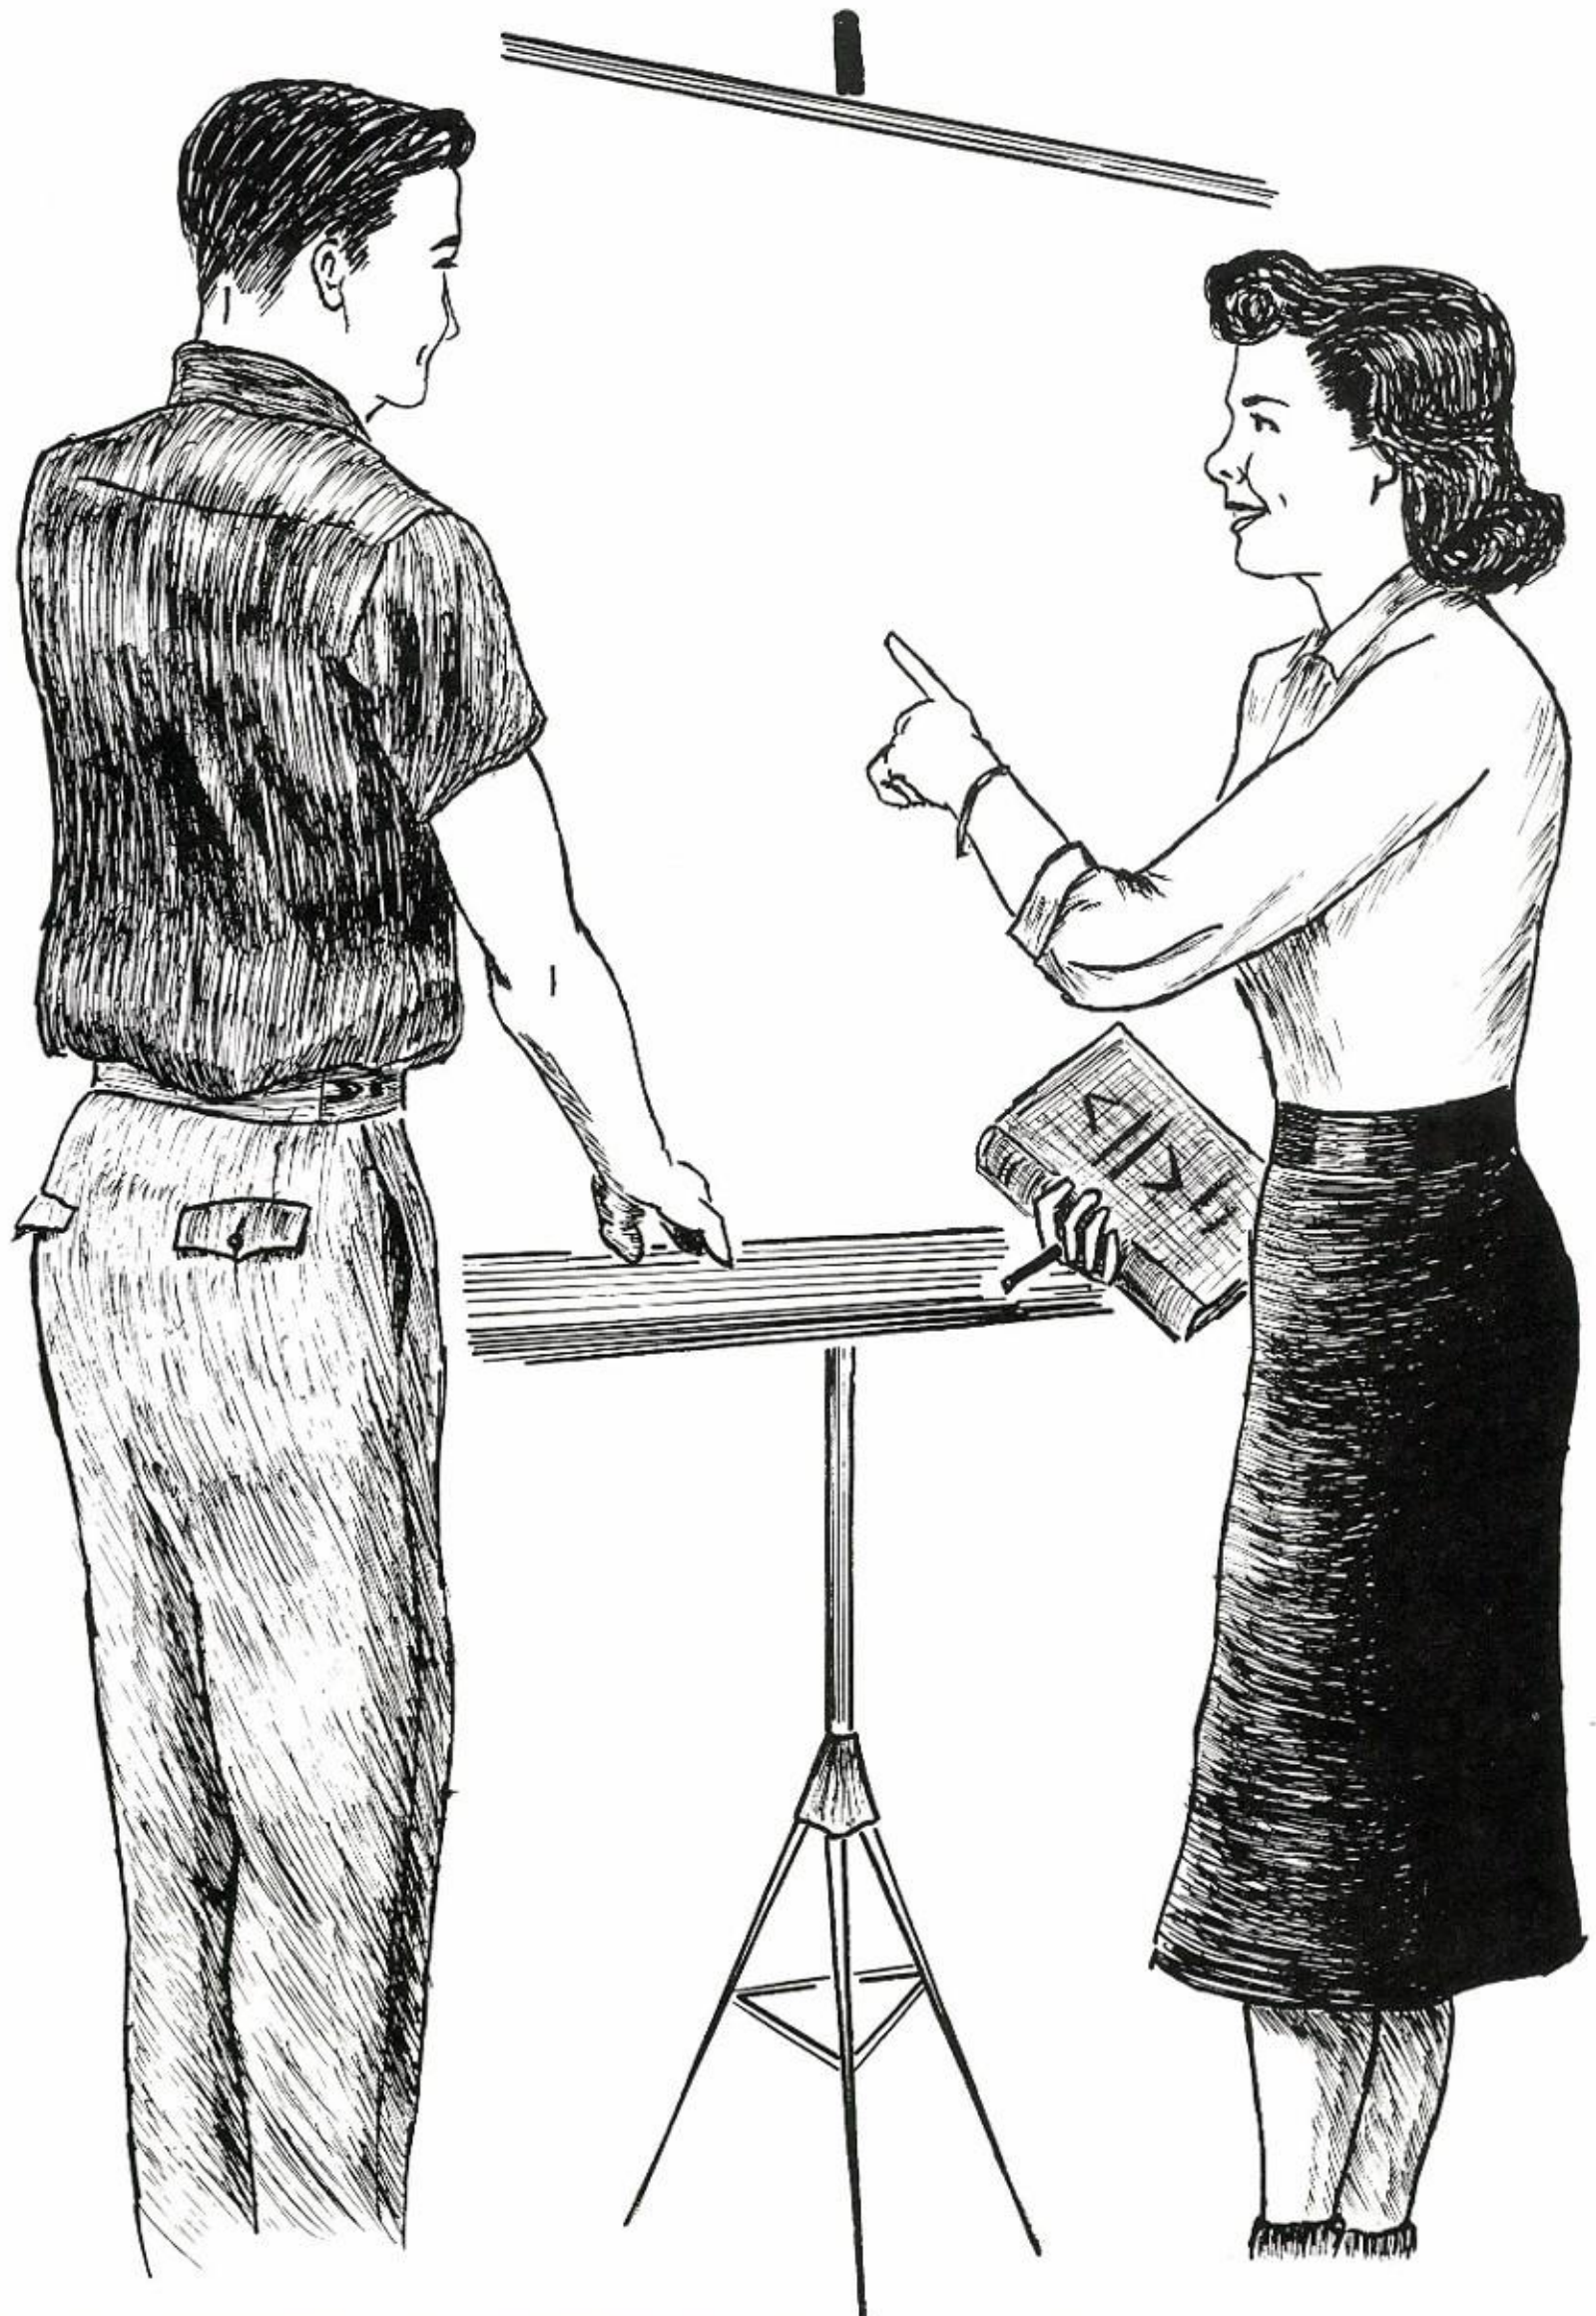

Faculty members conduct classes for parents. Whoops! Is it as bad as all that, Sister Mary Vera?

SCHOOL LIFE

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT is no chore for Sister Mary Josepha. Many of our governmental problems were solved in the visual-aid room. At least these seniors think so.

Amicably, these lively juniors discuss current issues in the light of AMERICAN HISTORY. That's Sister Mary Vera moderating the discussion panel.

WORLD HISTORY is no drudgery. Mr. Robert's trip to the library with his sophomores was to acquaint them with the giant-size atlas.

Not to be outdone by their elders, these seventh graders tackle the history of their home state by way of projects. Mr. Raitano is greatly pleased with their efforts.

Sister Walter Marie's "just a quickie" keeps her sophomore GEOMETRY class on their toes. They work like busy beavers.

Eventually, Joe McKlemurry succeeded in getting other members of the BIOLOGY class interested in the new "batch" of guppies.

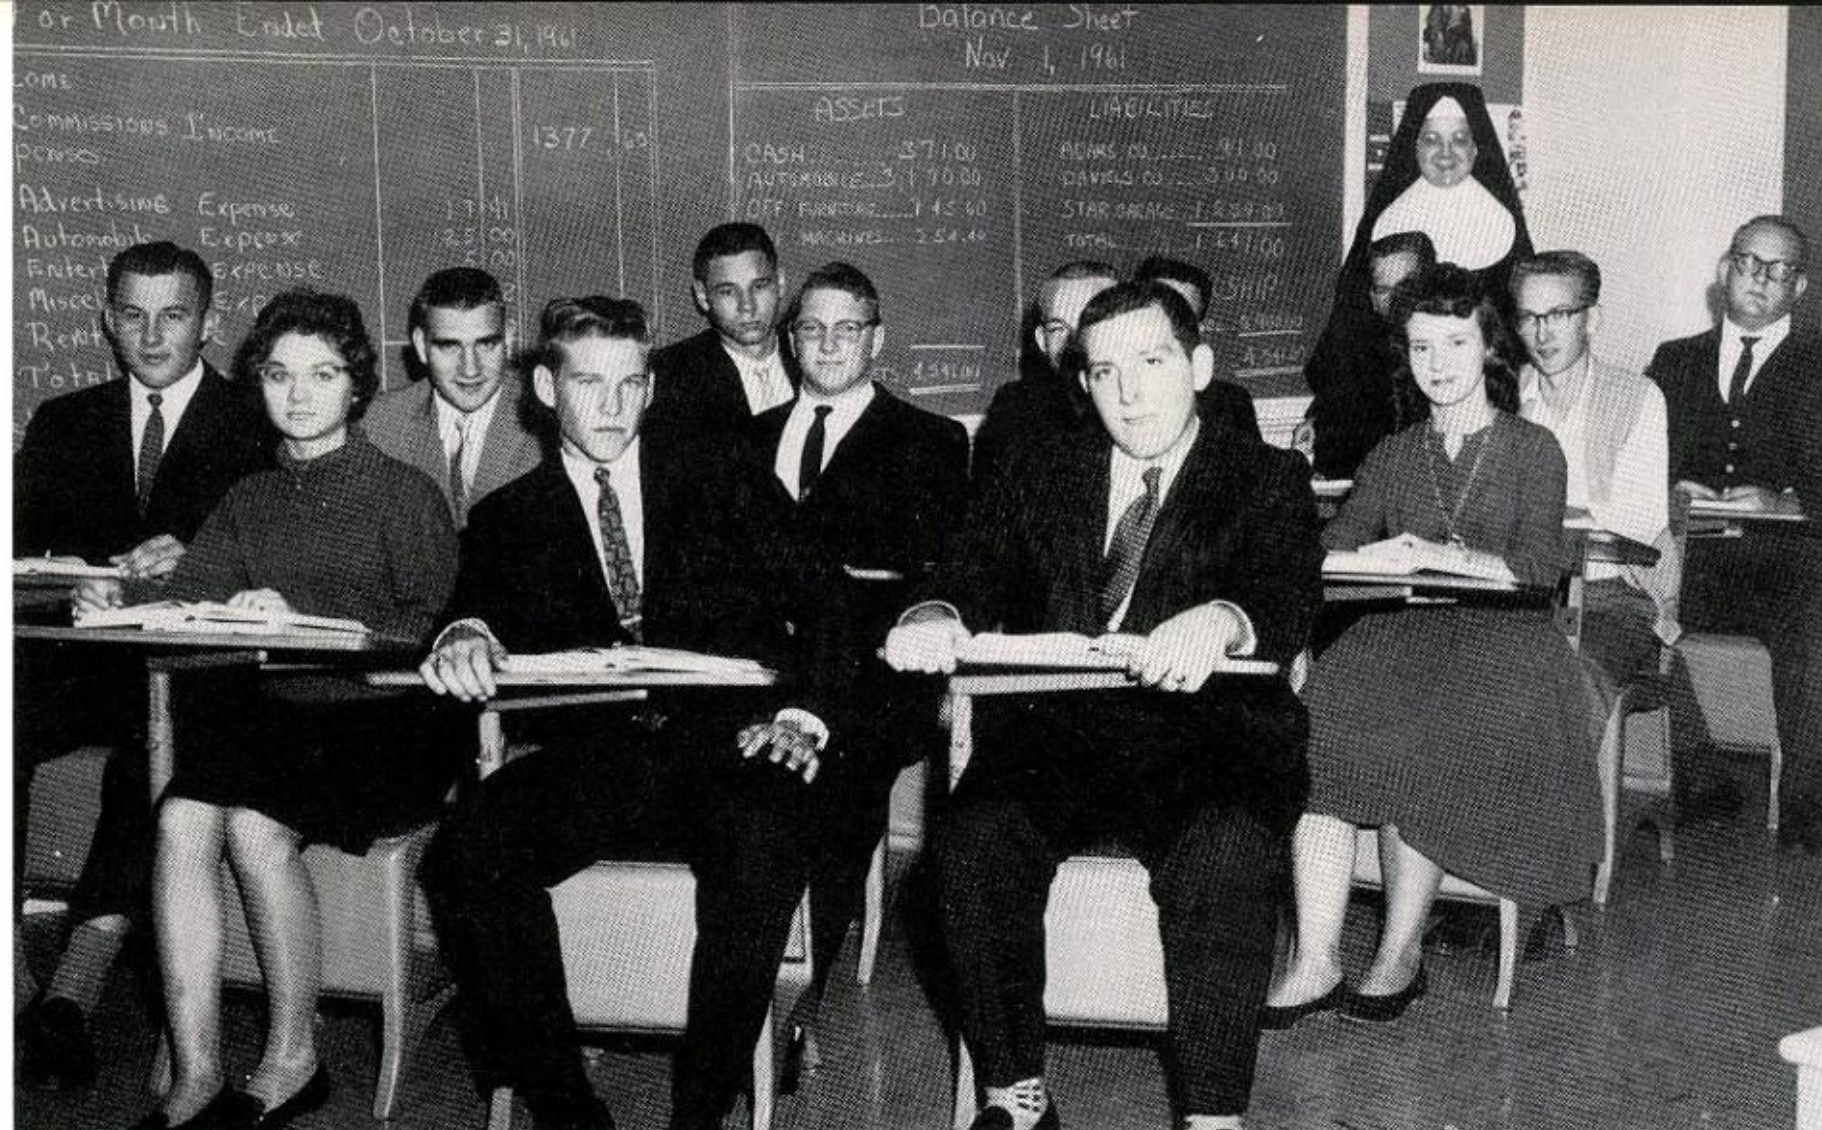

Mr. Henry's eighth grade science class are aspiring to reach the status of Sister Margaret Ruth's senior high PHYSICS class.

Keep plugging, eighth graders, you will get there.

These senior students in Sister Mary Erna's BOOKKEEPING class can brief anyone on "assets" and "liabilities," as you can well see.

If this is "LIBRARY GUIDANCE," Sister Mary Josepha has taken time out to instruct the eighth graders on the use of the card catalogue file.

Under Sister Mary Erna's persevering patience, TYPING is a highly valued course. There's not a vacant seat in the house.

Should you be looking for the right answer in RELIGION, call on any of these hands in Mrs. Hackman's eighth grade class.

The witches' scene in MACBETH comes to life for an appreciative group of seniors in Sister Karen Patrice's ENGLISH class. As you can see, there are talented students at Reicher.

Thorton Wilder's THE BRIDGE OF SAN LUIS REY is the lively discussion going on in this junior English class. Sister Mary Josita takes great pleasure in the views expressed by these students.

If you have ever been in Father Leddy's LATIN II course, you're familiar with "Gallia est omnis divisa in partes tres . . ." For a translation, call on any of these sophomore students.

"Escribamos en español." directs Sister Maria. These junior students not only think in Spanish, read in Spanish, but they also write in Spanish.

HOME MAKING

The "knit-one, purl-two" technique is a challenge for these freshman girls. After a time, Sister Casimir Joseph's patience scored a win . . . the girls learned to knit.

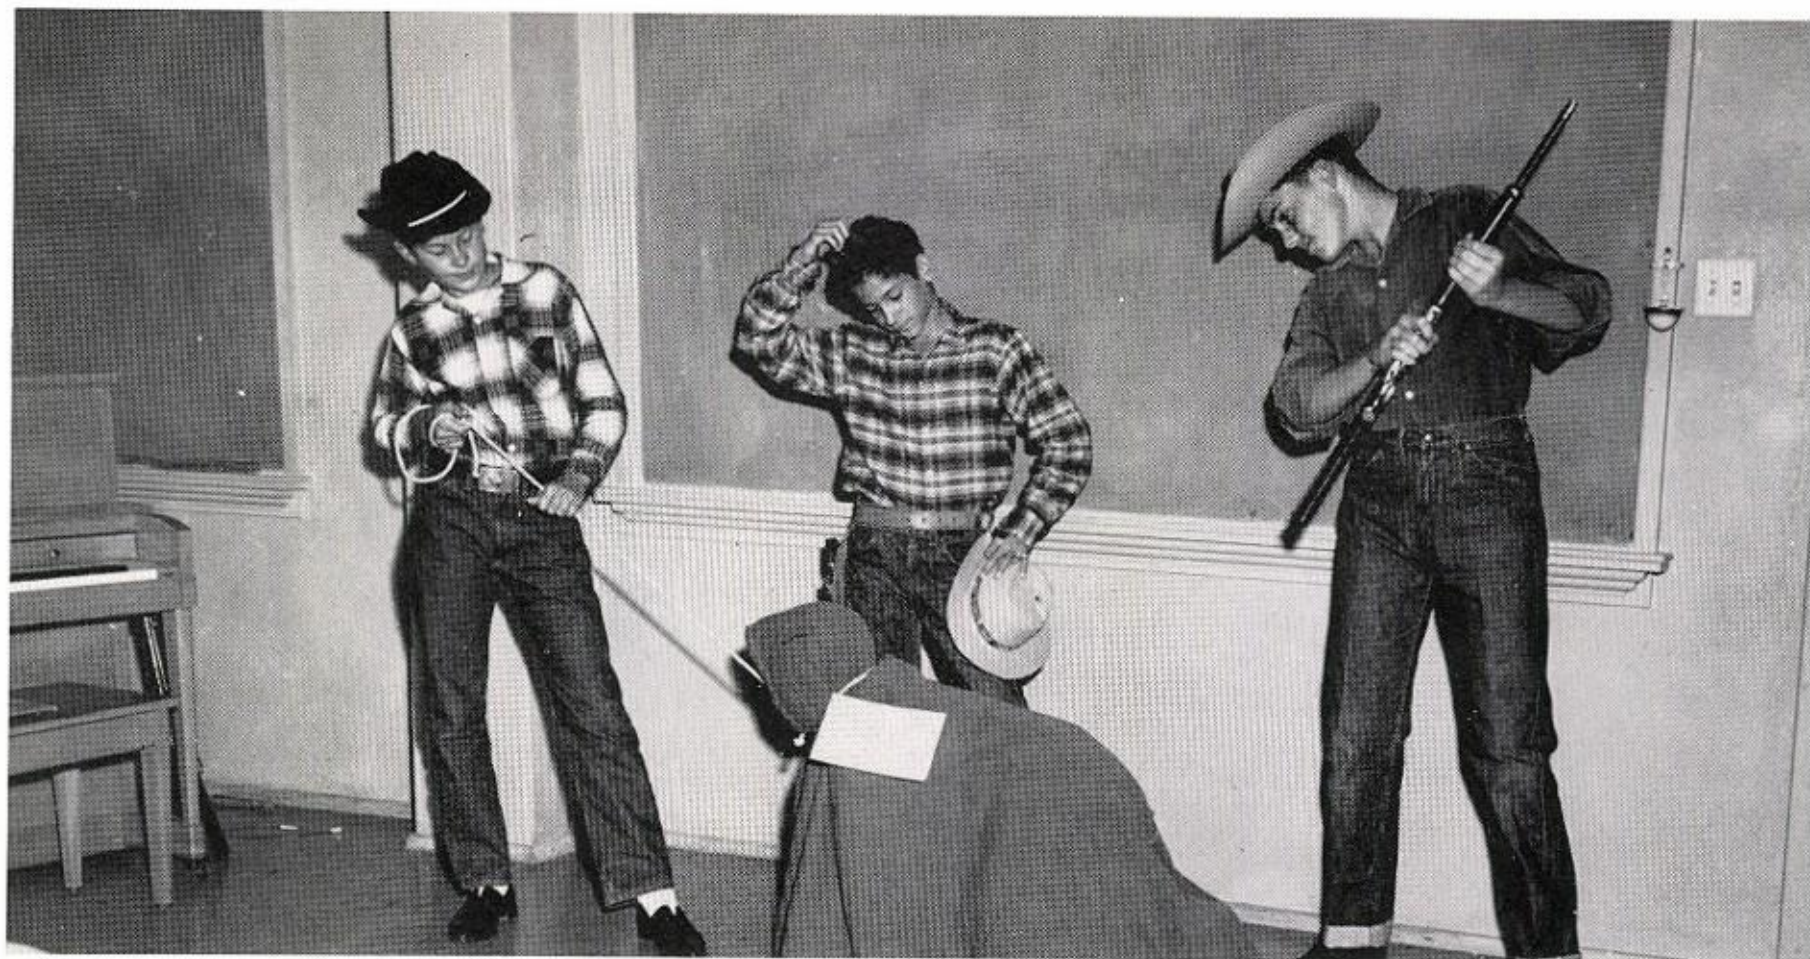

Part of ART II training concerns figure-drawing. Sister Mary Josita calls to the attention of her young artists the basic elements for acquiring good proportion. And the young model is very cooperative.

Taking time out for a look at what others are doing, these ART I students display a lot of talent in their varied color and design projects.

These young cowboys are having their difficulties. Looks as though that funny looking creature missed his line in the song "Trail to Mexico."

"La Cucharacha" and other like folk songs are much more fascinating when dramatized, as these eighth grade girls do agree.

MUSIC

Through dramatization, eighth graders learn to appreciate folk songs from the Southwest. No, that gun isn't loaded!

The mixed chorus group receiving directions from Sister Marian for a new song graciously lend their voices for various functions throughout the school year.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

"Growth in the spiritual life" is the aim of every Reicher student. Pop-visits are made to Our Divine Lord in the school chapel and many receive Holy Communion during the Masses offered on special occasions in the gym.

HOT LUNCH

Being at the tail-end of the chow line doesn't seem to disturb these young fellows . . . as long as they get something to eat.

Behind the chow line scene, ever on the job, are these wonderful managers who make up the cafeteria crew. They have many mouths to feed.

Trays are well stocked with good nourishing food by the time these young men reach the end of the serving counter . . . how the young ladies get to the table first, is their deep dark secret.

PHYSICAL FITNESS PROGRAM

At Reicher Catholic High School, the physical fitness program helps to keep young minds active. The coordination of body muscles and mental faculties are acquired in various ways . . . playing SPEEDBALL, a type of indoor football which originated in England; performing CALISTHENICS (bodily exercises); or learning the art of shooting with a bow and arrow. Mrs. Mills knows how to keep the girls physically fit.

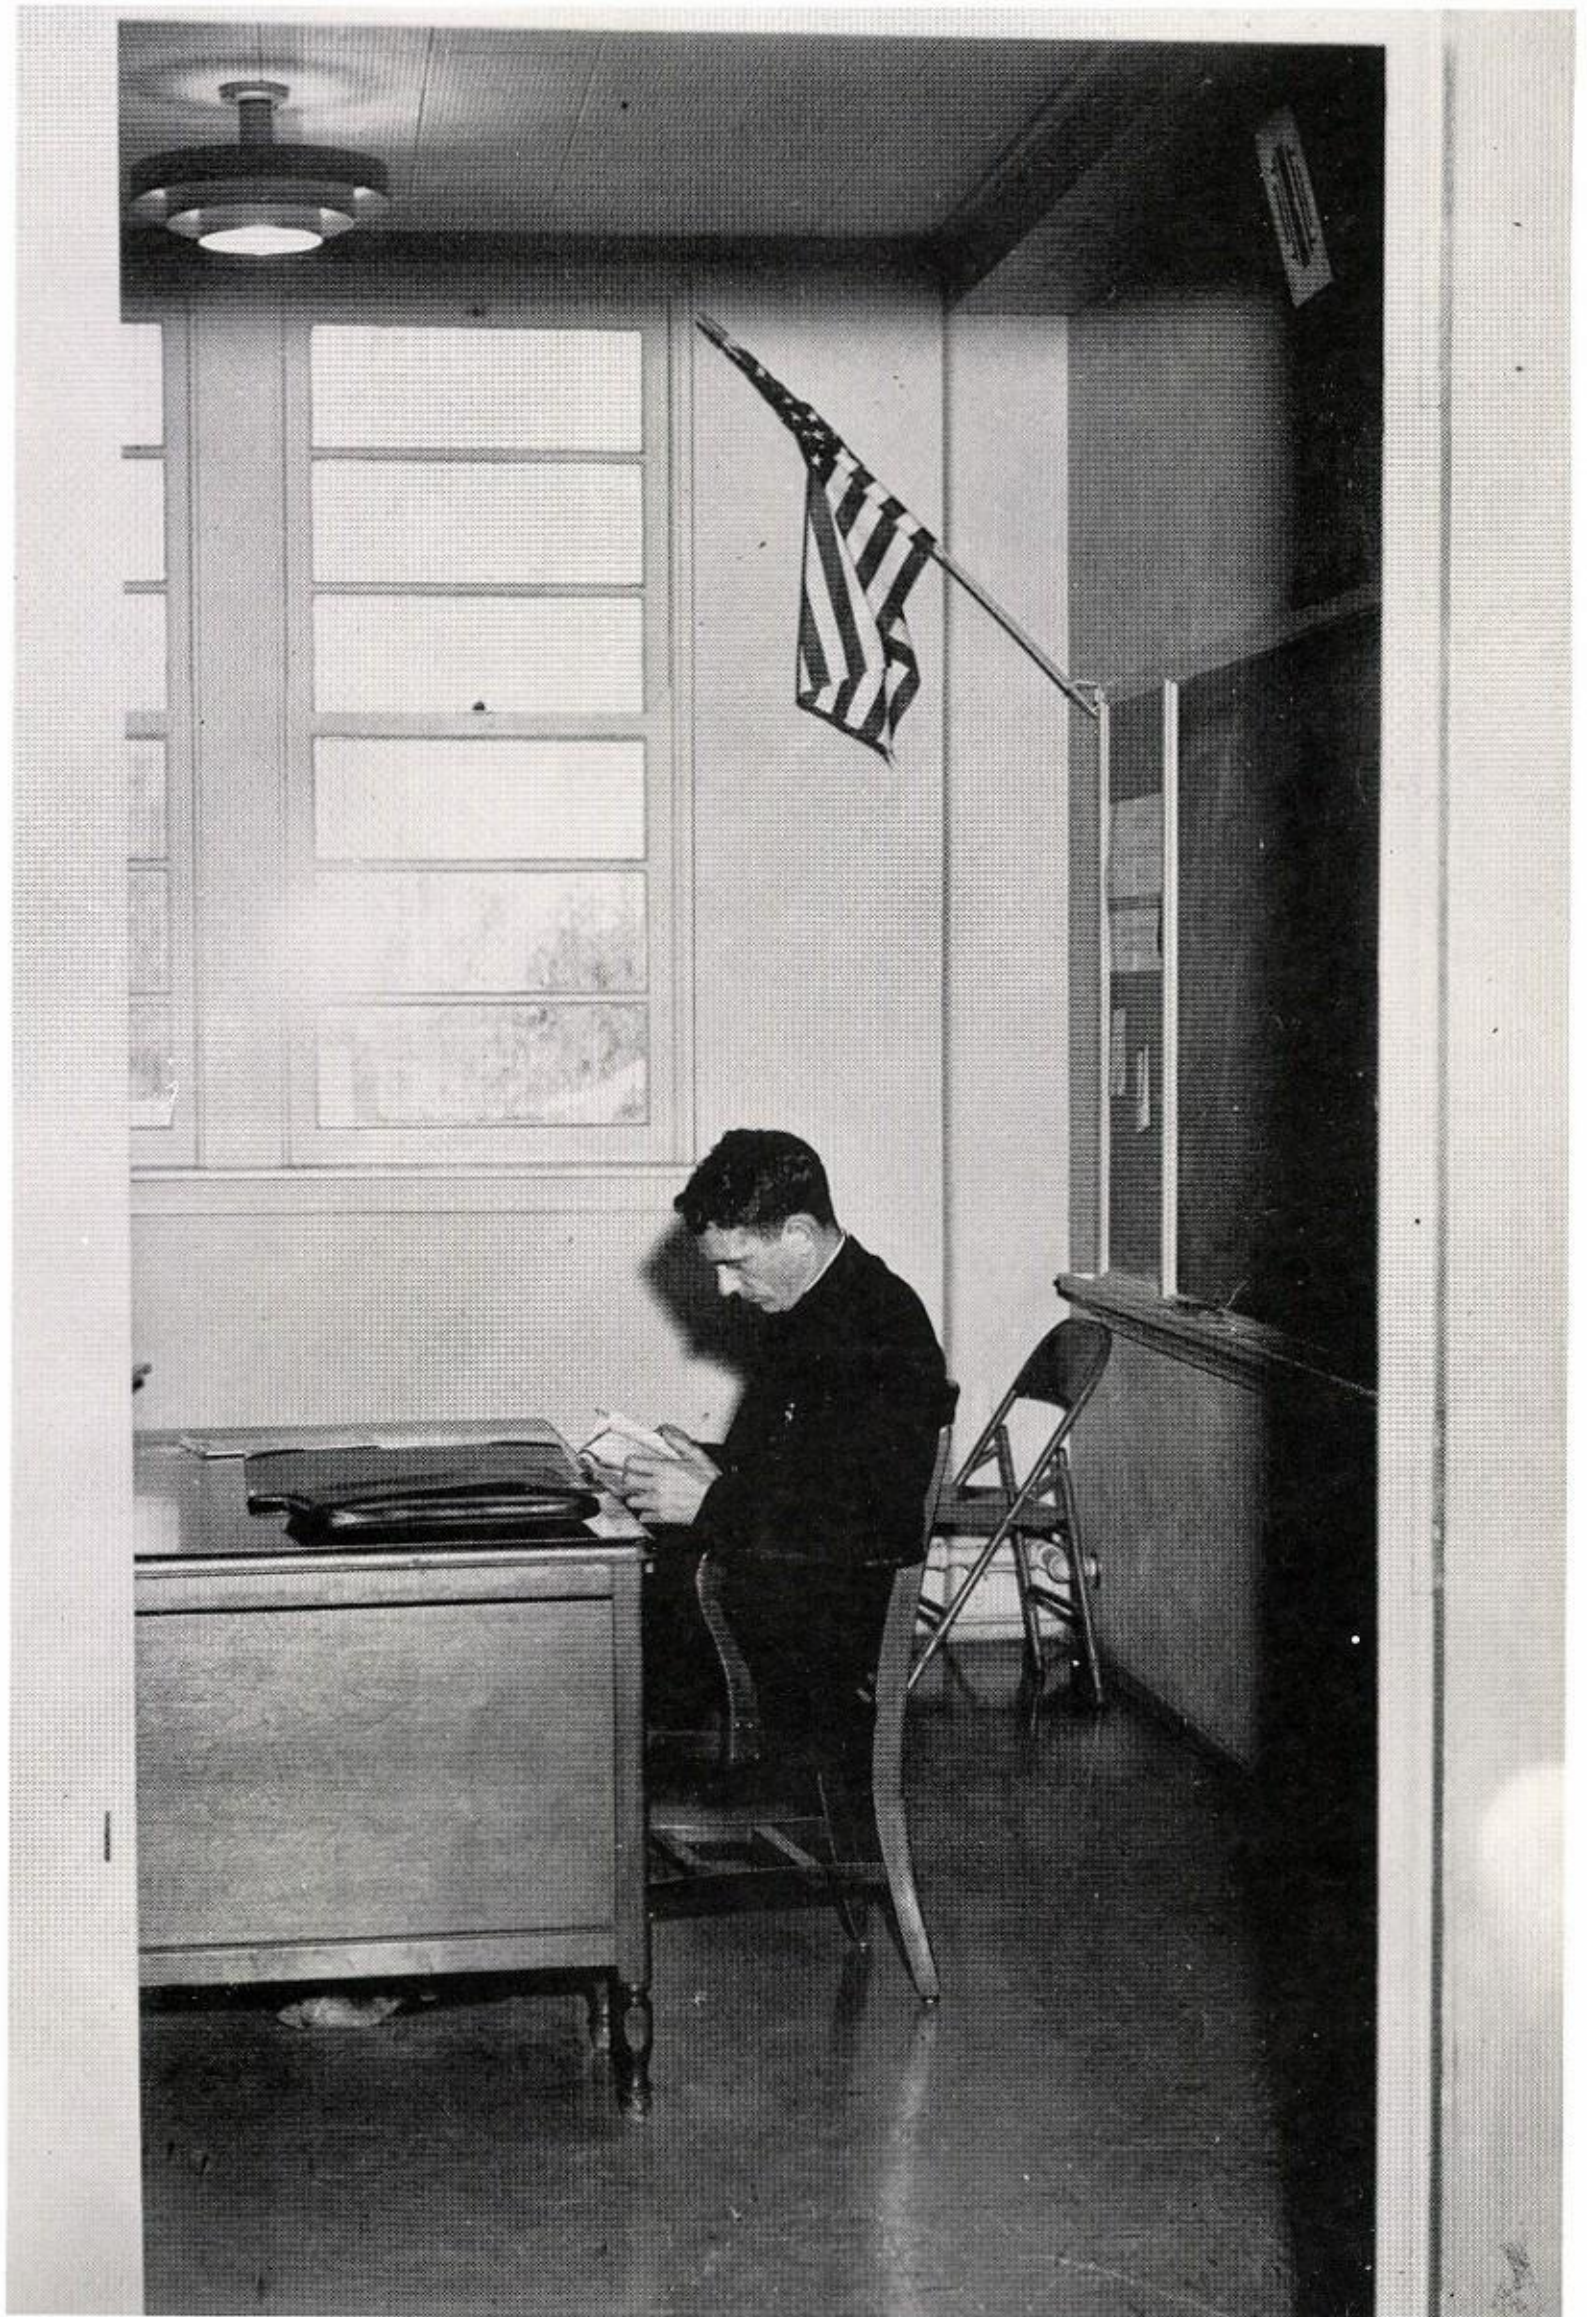

Mrs. Langlotz receiving tuition and Sister Walter Marie making out tardy slips or absentee excuses makes for a very busy pre-school activity period . . . and it is not uncommon to see a long line at the drinking fountain between periods, especially among the seventh graders.

CASUALS

Captured in a familiar role . . . Father Leonard
Leddy in his junior homeroom before or after school.

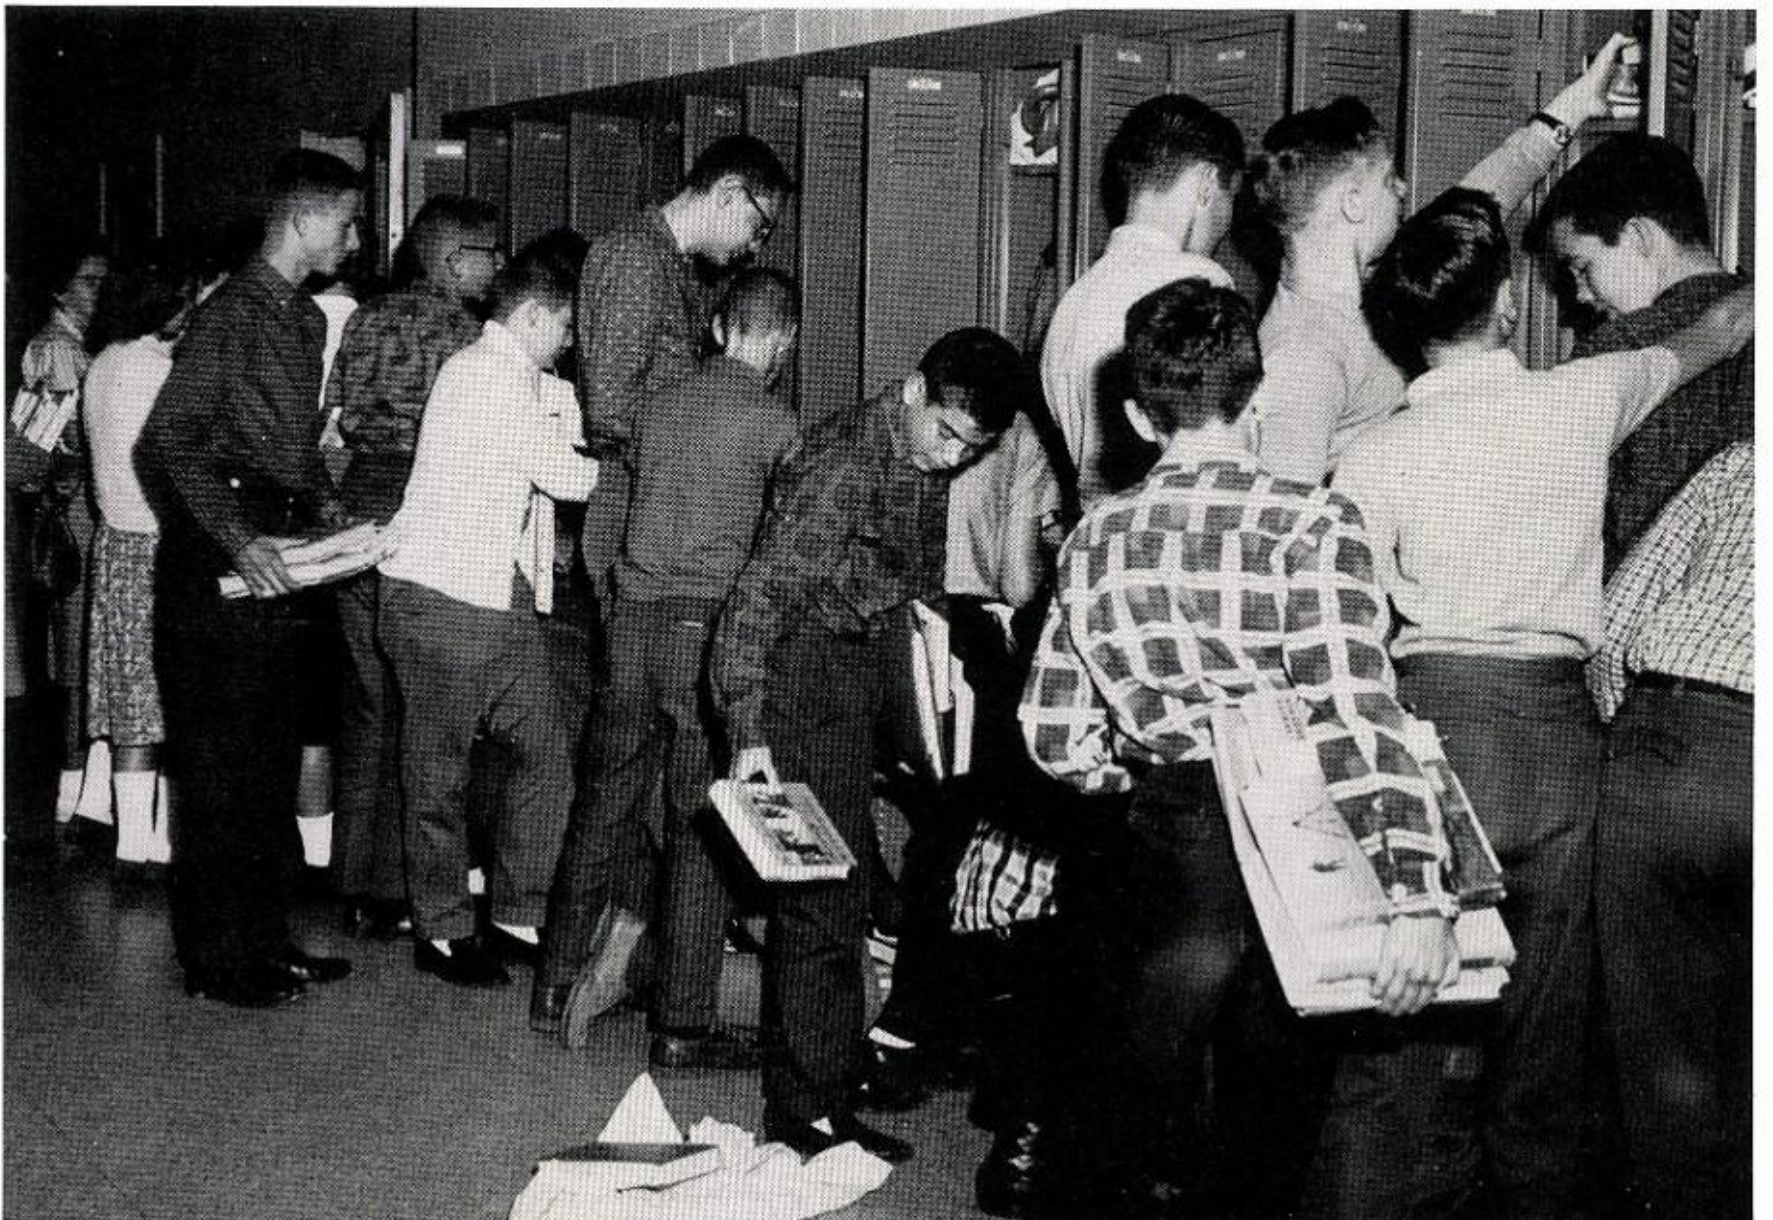

The envy of the lot, Mary Fowler reaches Sister Casimir Joseph first to give her a lift on seventh grade reading materials. By the close of the year everyone should have had a turn to help Sister.

As a rule the students move from class to class in single file and to the right . . . perhaps Mr. Henry can be blamed for this jam session.

In a freshman homeroom a written notice on the board "Locker inspection tomorrow" results in a general clean-up campaign.

ORGANIZATIONS

Stephen Prados
Andy Restivo
John Tusa

Eighth grade officers examining the new science table on wheels and other science equipment recently purchased.

SEVENTH GRADE OFFICERS

Kay Callaway, Patty May, Rodney Eichler, and Kathy Zalman are happy to represent their homeroom for the first time.

Mary Boger, Francine Todar, Peggy Kaluzza, and David Graves hope to serve their class well in all they are called upon to do.

These Student Council officers and representatives, under the direction of Mr. Henry, handle many activities for their classmates.

Many hands make light work. This is quite true of Sister Mary Josepha's Library Club. Each member spends many hours in the library to keep books in circulation.

Annual Project Emphasizes "Giving"

The annual Sodality Thanksgiving basket drive was organized and carried out with great success. Sodality members went to each homeroom to explain the reason for the drive and give a list of the necessary items. Baskets were judged the Wednesday before Thanksgiving morning on originality of decoration and content.

Some of the outstanding baskets were a "Horn of Plenty" decorated with brightly colored flowers, a balloon and basket in the style of "Around the World in 80 Days" and a turkey with variegated feathers. All the baskets were judged on originality of decoration and content.

Sophomores Speak in Dallas

On the week of December 10, ten Sophomore students from Jesuit High School participated in the annual Catholic Tournament. A follow-up tournament held last year was held all day at Malloy, Doug Jaquelin, Margaret, Vickie Sheeh, Bowen participated. The students were given the opportunity of Sr. J.

Jay Malloy placed in Poetry in Original. He went to final.

This was one of the year's best speeches.

Distinguished Speakers Address Students

Senor Cleofas Calleros, an historian from El Paso addressed the students of Reicher High on November 17, 1961. Senor Calleros spoke to the students about Texas history and clarified a few misconceptions which most people have about American history. Of special interest were two beautiful books which Calleros had helped write and put together. One of the books had Spanish leather for the cover inlaid with 13 carat German gold in an intricate design. Each page was of French silk, and each had a distinctly different border, handpainted in red ink. The illustrations in this book were done in black ink on a white background. The printing was all done by hand, and the printing on the chapter pages, unlike the black lettering of the other pages, was done in several colors. The other book lacked the silk pages, but the colored border around each page, and the colored ink on the chapter pages. Both of these valuable books were entirely handmade and written in Spanish about the early Spanish history. Senor Calleros also collaborated with the other men in putting together a book for the Pope. This book took five years to complete and was paid for by three Mexican families from El Paso. Each page of this book was made of sheepskin.

The American and World History classes and the American Government class were able to hear State Representative Murray Watson on November 17.

Mr. Watson, a member of the House of Representatives, explained the process of the election of representatives. He discussed the various jobs of representatives, and the money used in Congress. He also mentioned the upcoming election.

sent Cantata

A concert, an annual tradition of the Reicher High School, will be presented on November 17, at 8:00 p.m. in the gymnasium. The concert will feature a cantata, "The White Christmas," which is a short scene from the life of our Christ.

The singers will perform a variety of songs, including "The White Christmas," "The Christmas Carol," and "The Christmas Song." The concert is a wonderful opportunity for the students to showcase their talents and enjoy a festive evening.

Following the blessing of the statue of the Sacred Heart, the entire student body renewed the act of consecration during the month of October, as members of the Eucharistic Crusade.

C.S.M.C.

At the student assembly in October the officers of the mission crusade urged the student body to "shoot high" for the missions. There were various skits presented urging prayers and sacrifices from every mission crusader at Reicher Catholic High School.

SODALITY

The Thanksgiving baskets for the poor collected from the student body by way of home-room projects scored a great triumph for members of the high school Sodality. Sister Mary Vera and the four sodality officers are very pleased with the results.

The "J.C.L. Jackles" find a unique way to spread the "culture" of ancient Rome.

The officers of the Math Club, Tom Frank, Davis Chauviere, Ed Pugh, and James Barton, discuss the symbolism of the Mu Alpha Theta shield.

Muscles and a strong back come in handy for members of the Key Club who are responsible for the "weighty" jobs around school.

Around the Saturday morning school clock, members of the Red Cross are busy about many things to serve people at home and abroad.

Trying to keep the school spirit alive are Reicher's varsity cheerleaders; Brenda Brown, JoAnn Crenwelge, Patty Miller, Dale Smith, Karen Johnson, and Peggy Brown. Congratulations! girls.

"You've got to fight with all your might - - - we're gonna win the game tonight," is a familiar refrain at all of Reicher's games.

CHEERLEADERS

SCHOOL SONG

Hail to Reicher Cath'lic High
We'll honor you---loy-al and true al---ways,
You'll be proud of ev'ry one,
Your gallant sons and daughters sweet and gay,
In Faith and sports and scholarship, we always fly
your colors high and free,
Our Friendli---ness and loy---alty,
You'll be proud to own,
Blue and white the guiding light kept bright for our dear Reicher Cath'lic High.

Five Junior High cheerleaders ever on the alert to give their team moral support. Please do meet Linda Ream, Pat Tierney, Sharon Pruitt, Mary Ann Girard, and Rebecca Chavez.

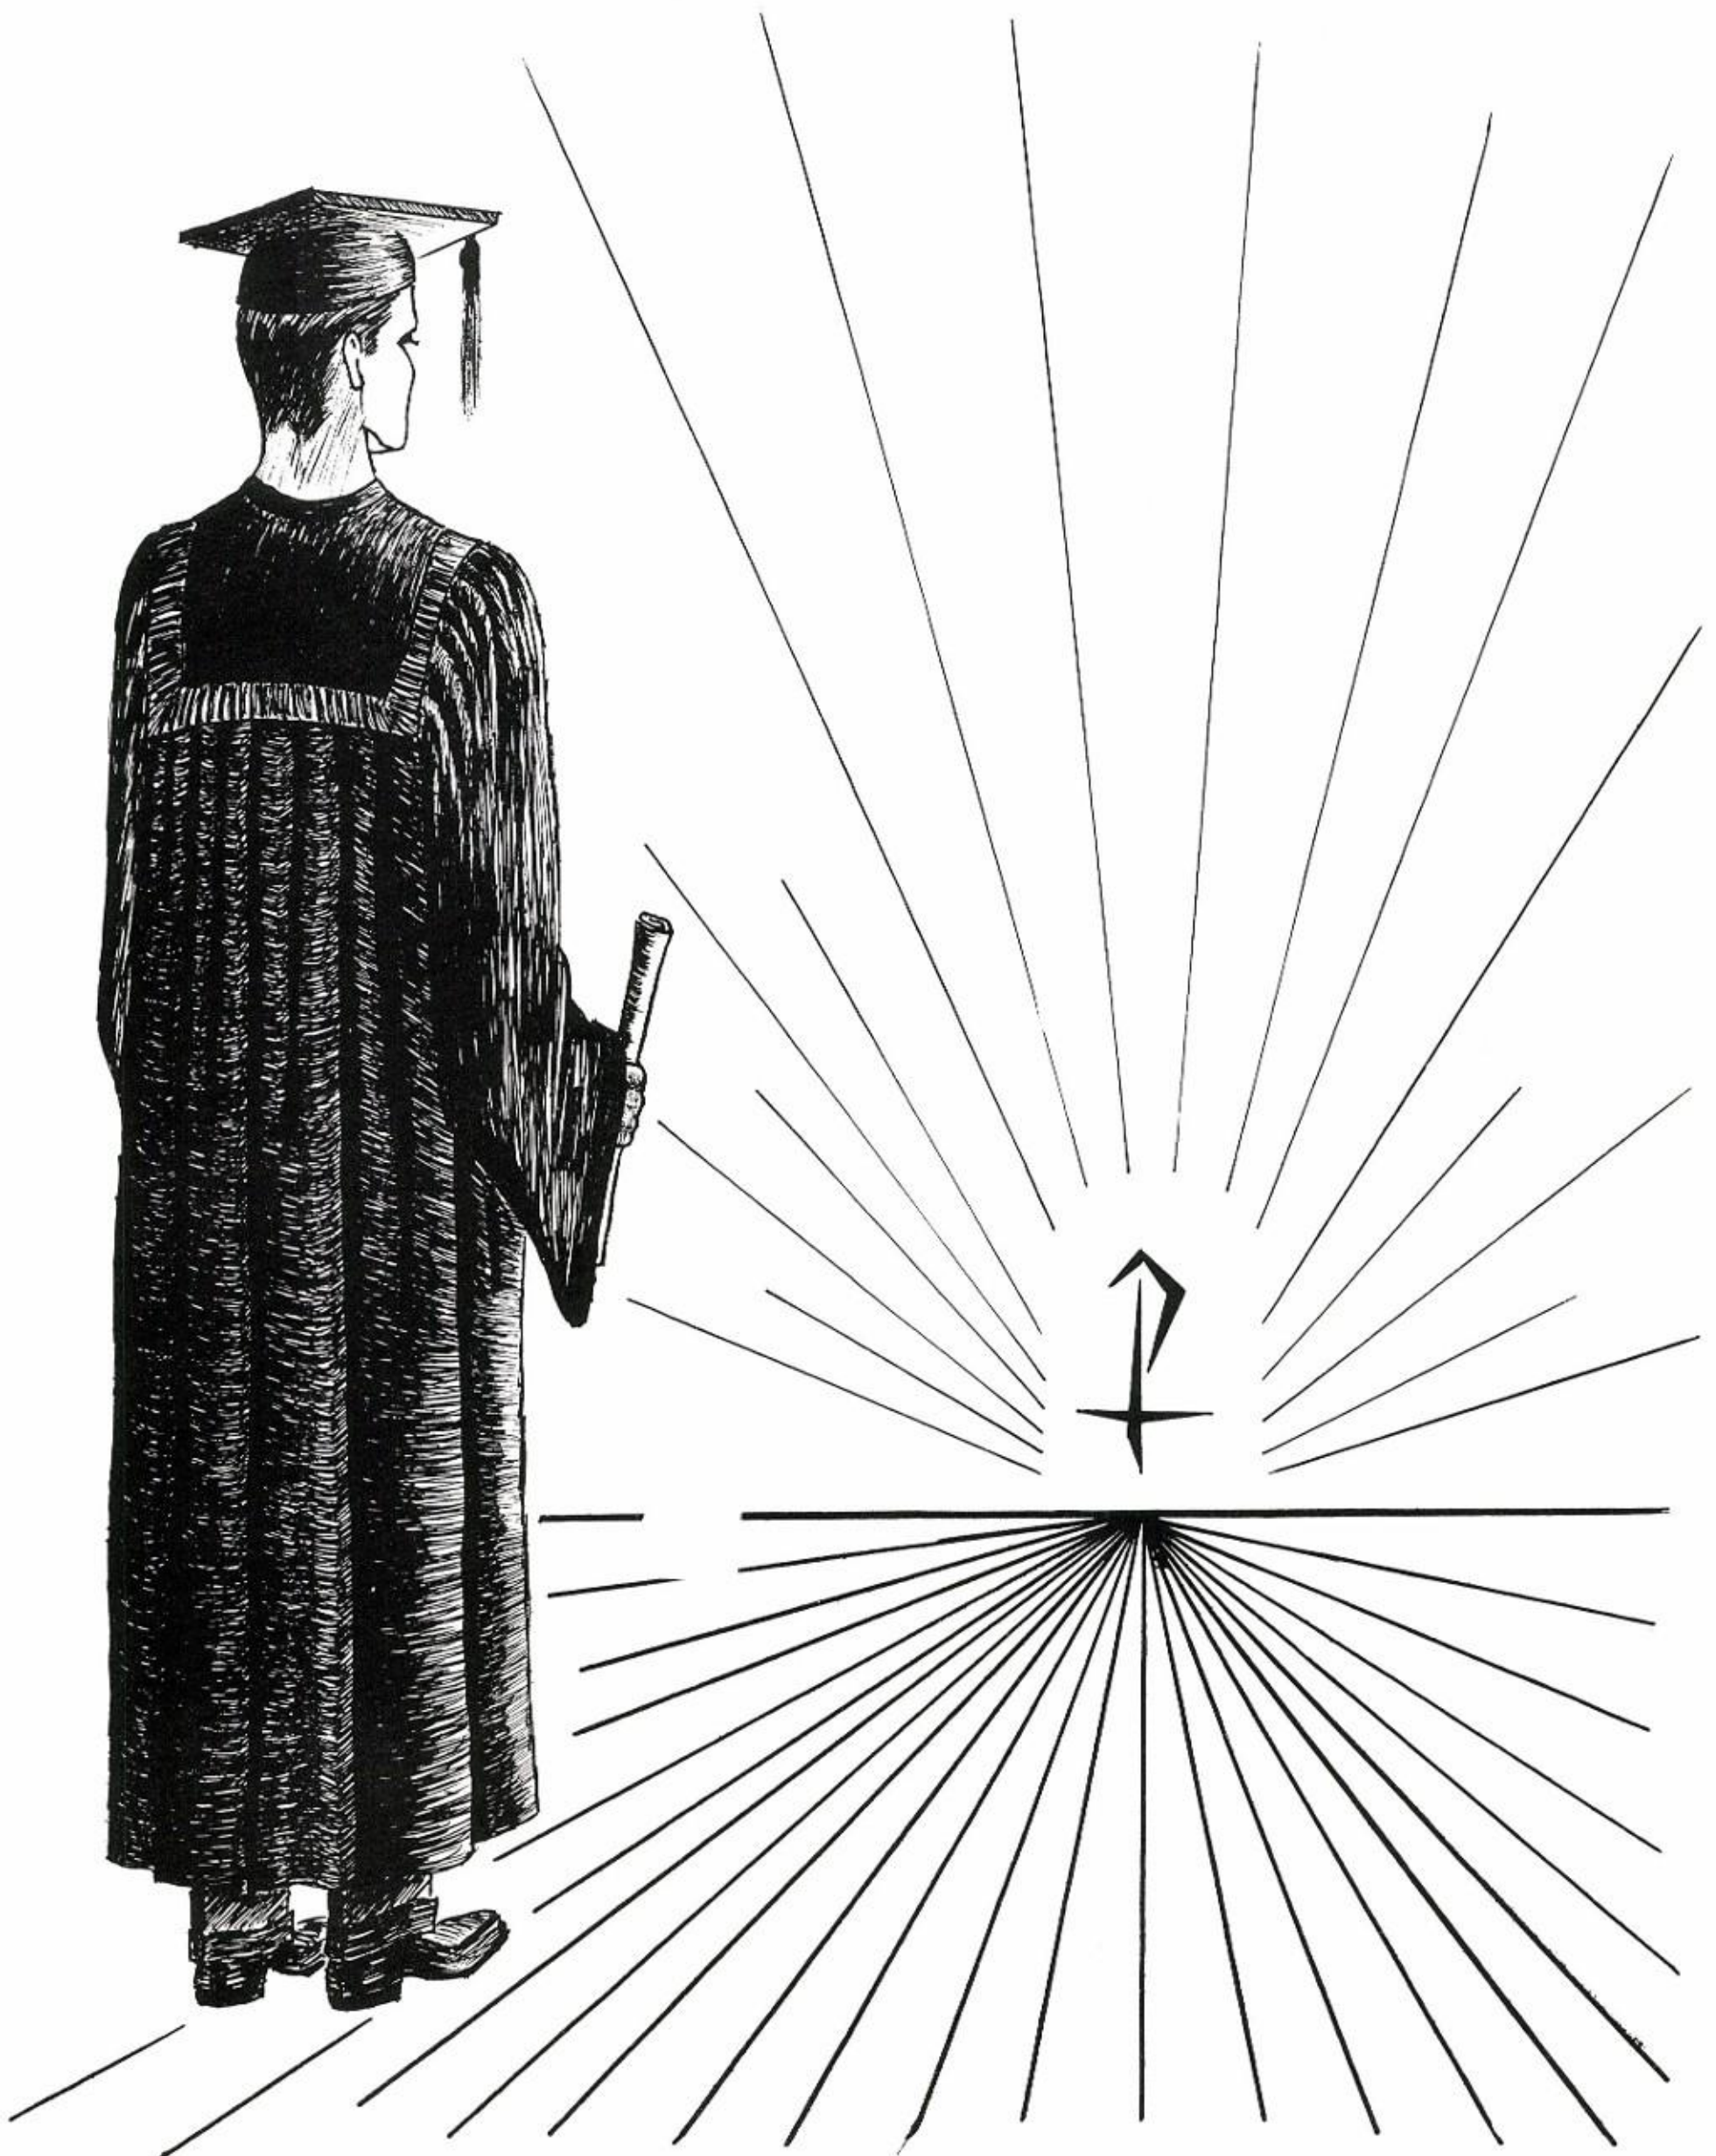

Carol Broadway, Susan Peterson, Patty Bowen, Molly Maloy, and Kay Donohoe exercise their lungs well in cheering the B Team on to V-I-C-T-O-R-Y.

"Let them learn, therefore, and let them show by their conduct that they have learned how gentlemen ought to act; let their appearance and their dress be what it ought to be; let their words be truthful and let them be true to their words; when they have given a promise, let them keep it; let them be ever master of their every movement and their every word; let them show respect for all, disturbing no man in the peaceful possession of his own rights; let them bear unpleasantness graciously, be courteous always; then they will do what is most important of all, they will keep God's commandments."

- Pope Pius XII

SENIORS' SPECIAL

These young men and young women have been in school together for twelve years . . . six years at Saint Mary's Grade School and six years at Reicher Catholic High School. Chatting away on the steps at the north entrance are Clifford Wright, Tom Frank, Peggy Brown, Janice Guthrie, J. I. Muhl, Judy Hunke, Jane Rohde, Ed Pugh, Robert Braden, and Don Bettinger. Absent when this picture was taken is Charles Langlotz.

Six years at Reicher Catholic High School is the distinction paid to six of Reicher's senior class. Posing for this picture are Kenneth Maciula, Jo Anne Jackson, Carole Mostyn, Hattie Matus, Karen Johnson, and Robert Donnellan.

SENIOR RING DAY

LETTERMEN AWARDS

Sports can be rewarding in more ways than one. On Lettermen Day, there were beautiful Cougar blankets for the "old" lettermen and letters and jackets for the new lettermen. Representing the school's Lettermen Club are Michael Kelley, Coach Vasek ( their moderator ), Douglas Matthews, Robert Donnellan, Dennis Carrigan, and James Frank.

SAFETY AWARD

Once again Reicher Catholic High School was the recipient of the Waco Safety Council Award, shortly before Christmas. Showing the plaque to Sister Walter Marie are Gary Callaway, Joe Misenko, and Douglas Matthews.

HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW

Senior Carole Mostyn graciously receives the Betty Crocker pin from Sister Casimir Joseph.

VOICE OF DEMOCRACY WINNER

The V.F.W. twenty-five dollar bond is the reason for Ed Pugh's broad smile . . . and Mr. Pugh has reasons to be proud of his son.

HIGH SALESMANSHIP

The entire student body can be credited with the financial success of the yearbook patrons and ads drive. Don Bettinger, the business manager, gives a check to John Roberson, Ed Traywick, Hattie Matus, Janice Guthrie, and Catherine Tate. The Juniors won the highest homeroom cash award of twenty-five dollars.

SENIOR EXCHANGE STUDENT

"LO HOW A ROSE 'ERE BLOOMING"

A Christmas pageant beautifully rendered by the mixed chorus under the direction of Sister Marian. Sister Karen Patrice handled each tableau-arrangement depicting the birth of the Divine Redeemer.

SPECIAL TIME OF GRACE

The retreat is a special time of grace. Father Rocco Perone, a Paulist priest from Austin, conducted the retreat conferences. He encouraged each Reicher student to become more closely associated with Christ.

Fund raising projects help to relieve financial problems. And the juniors have the know how. On the night of the prom everything was in tip-top shape.

OUR "ANGEL" MASCOT KAREN VASEK

She winged her way to heaven February 8, 1962.

Lord, You have arranged the service of Angels and men in a wonderful harmony; grant in Your mercy that those, who always serve before You in heaven, may be the protectors of our life on earth.
Through Christ Lord.

COUGAR SCOREBOARD

1961-1962

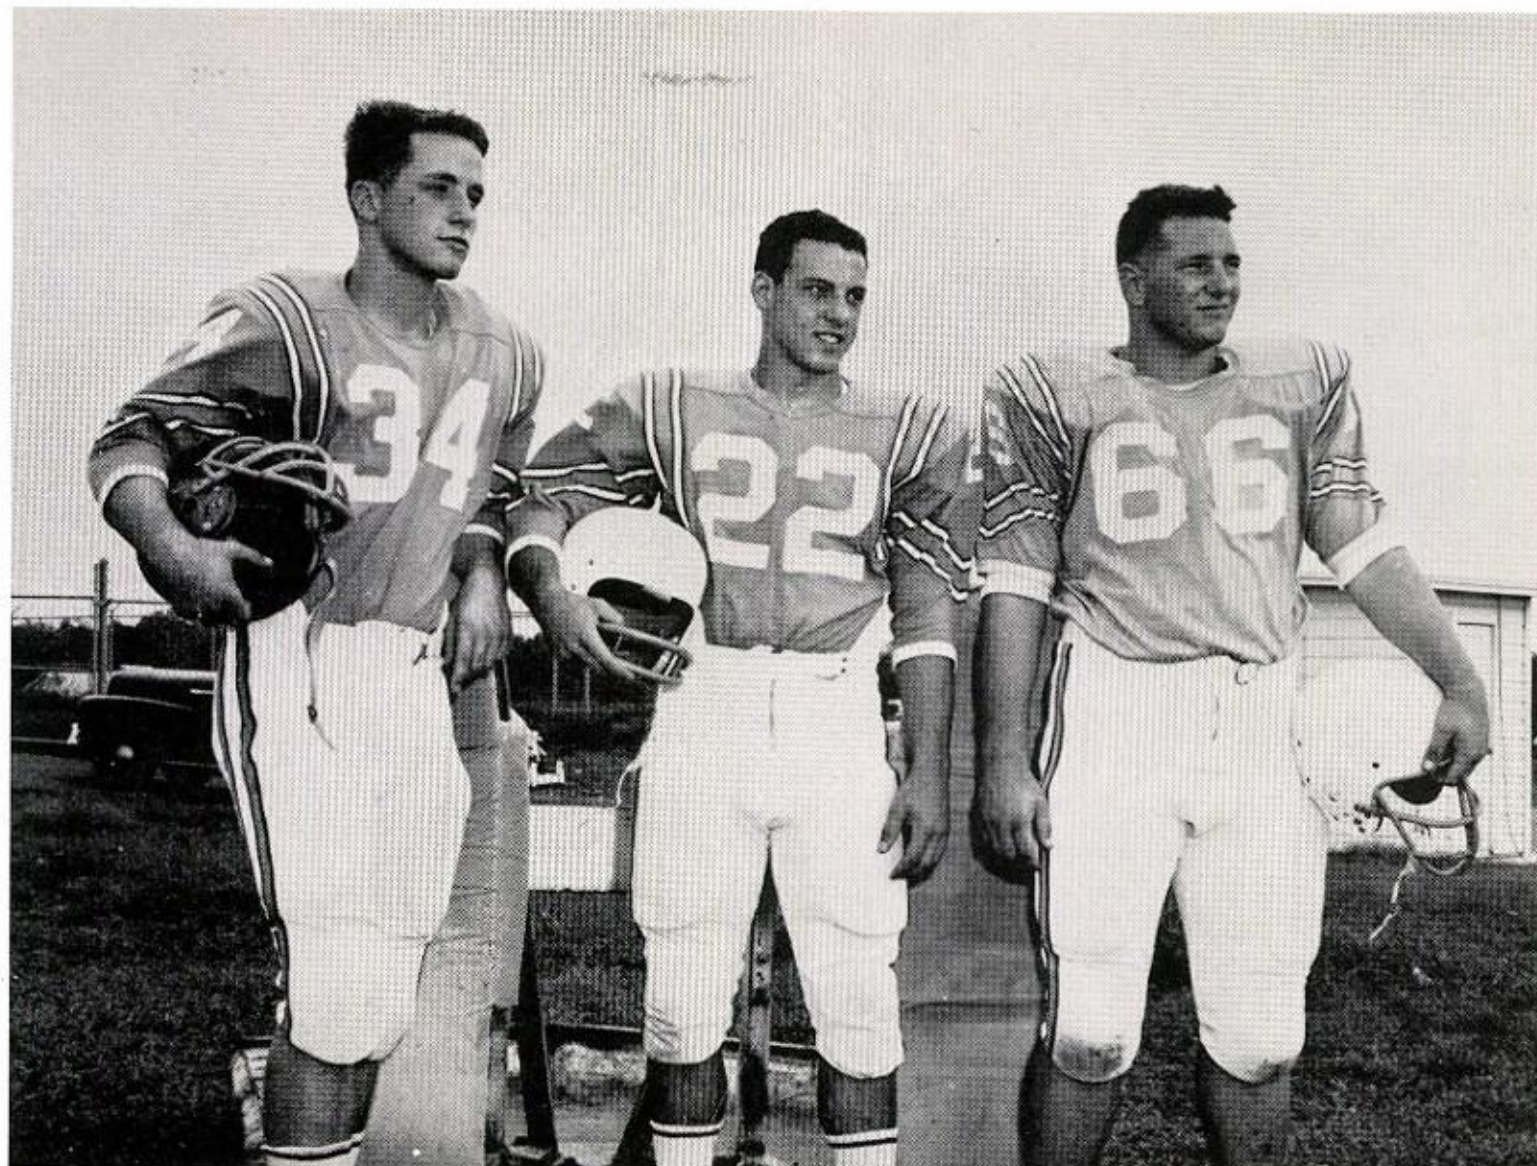

REICHER - MEXIA	0- 6
REICHER - KERWIN	0-26
REICHER - MARLIN	6-38
REICHER - GATESVILLE	14-24
REICHER - HEARNE	16-48
REICHER - HILLSBORO	14-26
REICHER - CENTRAL CATHOLIC	14-12
REICHER - SAINT MARKS	34-28
REICHER - LANERI	40-20
REICHER - JESUIT	0-32

A season of three wins and seven losses did not dampen the Cougar spirit nor the school spirit.
